DRAFT RULES

1. Short Title.—These rules may be called Rules for the grant of leave to the members of the Cantonment Boards.

2. These rules shall apply to all Cantonments.

3. Definitions.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

- (a) “Board” means a Cantonment Board;
- (b) “leave” means leave of absence from a meeting of a Cantonment Board with the previous permission of that Board;
- (c) “meeting” means a meeting of a Board, whether ordinary or special;
- (d) “member” means a member of a Cantonment Board;
- (e) “President” means the President of a Board, or in his absence the Vice-President.

4. Any member of a Board who for any reason is unable to attend any meeting or meetings of the Board shall apply in writing in advance to the President, setting forth in his application good and sufficient reasons for being absent from such meeting or meetings, provided that in unavoidable circumstances such as exigencies of service, sickness, etc., such application may be made ex-post-facto.

5. The President shall cause every such application to be placed before the Board at its following meeting together with his recommendations.

6. The Board may grant leave of absence to any such member for any particular meeting or generally for all the meetings to be held during a particular period:

Provided that in cases of emergency the President may grant such leave for a particular meeting and report the same to the Board forthwith for orders.

7. The Board may in its discretion, for reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse to grant leave to any member.

8. When leave of absence is refused to any member and if such member absents himself for more than three consecutive months from the meetings of the Board, the Board shall report the case for the orders of the Central Government, through the Officer Commanding-in-Chief, the Command, together with its recommendations after obtaining the explanation of the member in writing for such absence.

9. Application for leave of absence shall be made in the form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to these rules.
